On Monday, at about 8:30 o'clock, the students will be treated to a moving picture show on the camous near the west fence. The slone of the lawn forms a natural theater. The pictures will consist of views of Yellowstone park. The pictures will show a six-weeks camping trip through the park.

Vesterday upont 10 o'clock the water

Yesterday about 10 o'clock the water pressure was so low that it was decided to cut off the supply on the lawns. This helped for a short time, but another decrease in the supply left the buildings without water. The intense, heat and lack of water made class work very hard, and some of the teachers took their classes out upon the lawn.

Coach Bennion is completing arrangements with Reed Wimmer, whose father has a 10 000-acre cattle ranch about fifty miles north of Evanston. It somebody doesn't bring back a bag of green nuts he found yesterday, Carl Anderson today will have to pay $8 or $9 because he lost the nuts. Anderson is a driver for Hewlett brothers. Yesterday he went for a load of green nuts to Kahn Bros. wholesale establishment on Wert Second South street to be taken to the Hewlett's roasting plant. When Anderson reached Hewlett's he discovered that one of the numerous sacks had fallen from his wagon. Anderson an ill-afford to stand the price of the nuts, for he is the support of his mother, who is a widow transmuch as the nuts are green and unfit for use until roasted, the finder will help Anderson out of a difficulty if he will make his find known.
